ALLIED SPEARHEADS DRIVE INTO GERMAN DEFENSE LINES

Rommel Reported Evacuating Some Of His Technicians

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Allied spearheads were reported driving into Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's main siege defense lines in the narrow Axis-held corridor northern Tunisia today, and an Algiers broadcast declared that Rommel had already started evacuating German technicians from the African trap.

Other reports from Rome and Marseilles said Axis troops, mostly Germans, had been slipping out of Tunisia during the last few nights and had been seen disembarking at dawn in Sicily and Sardinia.

A German military commentator, however, declared there would be "no Dunkerque" for Rommel's 200,000 beleaguered troops, and thus indicated they would be left as a time-saving sacrifice in a sequel to the German disaster at Stalingrad.

At-a-glance developments on other fronts:

Air war—RAF bombers wing 1,500 miles round-trip across Alps to pound Spezia naval base in northern Italy; other Allied raiders hit Palermo and Messina harbors in Sicily and targets in northwest Germany; Swedish fighter planes drive off German bombers flying over Sweden's major naval base.

Russia—Moscow expects heavy German attacks in next two or three weeks; Nazis massing troops, supplies in many sectors; Soviet-piloted U. S. planes reported aiding Red armies in large-scale aerial fighting; German pressure shifts to Leningrad sector.

Southwest Pacific—Gen. MacArthur sounds new warning that Japanese are set for big aerial offensive, says "naval forces cannot save us if we lose the air"; Allied bombers pound enemy ships off New Guinea, probably sink 10,000-ton vessel, set 8,000-tonner afire.

Japan—Japanese military chief says preparations completed for "vast air attack on American mainland"; asserts German, Italian air forces will join in assault. Burma—British frustrate new Japanese attempts to infiltrate lines on Burmese coast.

On the Tunisian front, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced that the Allies now had rolled up to Rommel's mountain defenses ringing Tunis and Bizerte, while United Nations fliers destroyed 84 more Axis planes. The German high command said a series of Allied attacks on the western flank of Rommel's mountain-rimmed foothold had been repulsed by counter-attacking Axis forces.

"In the southern sector, strong enemy forces approached Axis positions and carried out reconnaissance thrusts, which, however, were frustrated," the Nazi communique declared.

Field dispatches said an Algiers radio report yesterday that Engadine had been captured appeared premature. Enfidaville, the southern anchor of Rommel's new 100-mile-long defense line, was captured yesterday.

The raids gave point to MacArthur's blunt assertion that "the surge of our air force over surrounding waters marks the stretch of the no-man's sea which is the measure of our safety (in Australia)." MacArthur's statement, a general review of the strategic position of the United Nations in the Pacific, followed by only a few hours the publication in Australia of war.

Hollister, Calif., April 14—(P)—A navy blimp crashed somewhere in the low range of coastal hills west of Hollister shortly after midnight and then disappeared, killing its crew of nine men as it drifted away.

One of the nine received a head injury, a second suffered a broken leg and three others were less seriously hurt. None was killed. Searching parties spread out over the hills some 85 miles south of San Francisco hunting the fugitive bag and keeping in touch with the San Benito county sheriff's office by radio.

The sheriff's office was unable to explain how the wreck occurred or why the ship, of a type usually engaged in offshore patrol, could have come down some 25 miles inland and an even greater distance from its base.

Observers noted a curious parallel between the current mishap and the only other known patrol blimp crash in this area since war.

In this case the blimp is missing. In the previous instance, last summer, the crew disappeared and never was found, while the unmanned craft bounced inland over San Francisco's hills, finally coming to rest in a Daly city street just south of San Francisco.

HEMISPHERIC UNION HOLDS CELEBRATION

Twenty - One Republicans Are Represented at Observance in Washington

GREETED BY PRESIDENT

BY KENNETH L. DIXON
Washington, April 14—(P)—A hemispheric union drafted more than half a century ago stood forth as a possible pattern for postwar planning today as 21 American republics took time out from pressing world problems to observe Pan American day.

That the Pan American Union might be the Americas' proffered pattern for world-wide postwar cooperation among nations was seen in the words of President Roosevelt.

In a message to celebrants of one of the few international holidays, the president said that the union's member republics—through the "foresight of their leaders"—already are assured of a place "in the world-wide concert of free nations which will constitute the international society of the future."

Mr. Roosevelt told the Union's board of governors that the republics "devised a practical mechanism of consultation"—one of the admittedly toughest problems now posed in current postwar planning parleys—during the conferences of Buenos Aires in 1936 and Lima in 1938.

Observers immediately speculated as to whether Mr. Roosevelt might be implying that such a mechanism and such a system, on a broader scale, might well be worked out by the United Nations to maintain peace in the postwar world.

No Essential Changes On Soviet Front

By EDDIE GILMORE

Moscow, April 14—(P)—While no essential changes took place on the Russian-German front today, large-scale air activity continued in many sectors, the aerial operations including everything from scouting to heavy bombing.

In these mounting air battles of spring there is good reason to believe that United States planes—down by Soviet pilots—are taking part in many operations.

There also is reason to believe they'll continue to play their part in future operations as United States production of planes swells. The main centers of ground fighting in Russia were south of Dalakleya and from the Volkhov front northwards.

South of Dalakleya, the Germans swung considerable numbers against Soviet bridgeheads, but again failed to capture objectives. In the last hours of the battles, the Russians killed 200 of the enemy, bringing the total to 300 in 24 hours in this sector.

Also south of Dalakleya, Red Army scouts during the night broke into a German-held town, presumably on the western side of the Donets River, and killed 40 Germans. Battles in this sector officially were described as "fierce."

On the Volkhov front, southeast of Leningrad, the Russians heavily artillery shelled a German position, smashing up some batteries and mortars. Russian guns in the last 24 hours have blown up 25 dugouts and pillboxes in this area.

Washington, April 14—(P)—The Office of Price Administration today postponed for a month the effective date of its newly announced retail prices on beef, veal, lamb, and pork.

The postponement was announced today by a group of congressmen.

Washington, April 14—(P)—The 13 billion dollar Second War Bond Drive rolled along today behind unofficial estimates that some $2,000,000,000 probably had been subscribed the first 24 hours.

The treasury estimated that at least 6,000 newspapers—daily and weekly—are carrying advertisements, stories and editorials explaining and supporting the campaign, which started Monday and will continue for three weeks.

"Crush-Out" Foiled

Harold Brest, of Sharon, Pa., a notorious kidnaper and bank robber serving a life term at Alcatraz, was picked up by a police launch in San Francisco Bay after an escape attempt with three other long termers failed. He is believed to be the only one of the four left alive. One other prisoner was shot and sank while swimming and two believed to have drowned.

Two Convicts Are Killed In Prison Break

Sharon Man Is Caught With Another Trying to Escape From Alcatraz

"ALL ACCOUNTED FOR"

San Francisco, April 14—(P)—Listing two convicts as dead and two recaptured in the latest escape attempt at Alcatraz federal prison in San Francisco bay, Warden James A. Johnston said today the men who made the dash were "all accounted for."

Last to be checked off was Fred Hunter of Ohio, 43-year-old stock shouldered former pal of the late Alvin (Old Creepy) Karpis, post-office and train robber.

Hunter was flushed out of a cave on the beach of the prison island late yesterday, not far from where he and the three others started their dash in the morning from the prison model shop, after binding and gagging two guards.

The warden also said four one-gallon paint cans were found, each stuffed with army uniform clothing. The men had planned to use the cans to help keep them afloat in the bay and the clothing, taken from the prison shop where army goods are reclaimed, to serve as disguise.

The dead, picked off by guards' rifles as three of the convicts battled the ebb tide, were:

James A. Boardman, 24, Indianapolis bank robber and young member of the quartet, and Floyd G. Hamilton, 36, once a member of the Bonnie Parker-Clyde Barrow gang which terrorized the southwest a decade ago.

Ceiling Fixed On Horsemeat

Washington, April 14—(P)—A pair of farm price orders—raising yellow corn ceilings in the Midwest and placing horsemeat under price control—provided the major inflation front action today as other developments projected by President Roosevelt in his "hold the line" edict generally lagged.

The Office of Price Administration announced last night that a five-cent-a-bushel increase in the present ceiling prices on yellow corn would become effective today, in line with instructions from Stabilization Director James F. Byrnes and Food Administrator Chester C. Davis.

Horsemeat was the second "cost of living" item to get legal action since the president's order. The first was tuna fish.

Effective April 20, the top retail prices for horsemeat is 18 cents a pound for all boneless cuts.

VOLUNTARY WAGE HIKES TO BE DENIED

War Labor Board Refuses To Permit Adjustment Of Inequalities and Inequities

MAY AFFECT MILLION

BY JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
Washington, April 14—(P)—Voluntary offers by 10,000 employers to raise wages and salaries will be denied as a result of the War Labor Board's refusal to permit adjustment of inequalities and inequities.

There was no official estimate of how many employees this would affect, but unofficial estimates ranged from 500,000 to 1,000,000.

The WLB laid down its first formal application of the president's hold-the-line order of April 8 in a decision in a Pennsylvania case late yesterday and declared it "proposes to carry out strictly the spirit and intent as well as the literal meaning" of the anti-inflation order.

Simultaneously the WLB announced it had instructed local boards to "deny at once all proposed wage and salary adjustments which involve only interplant inequalities and which cannot be decided on the basis of the little steel formula or standards of living."

The board estimated this would result in disapproval of about 10,000 of the 17,000 cases on hand in the 12 regional offices.

CIO President Philip Murray told all affiliated unions in a letter yesterday they should demand for WLB's right to correct inequalities by approving wage increases and that this could best be done by bringing specific cases to stabilization Director James F. Byrnes' attention. Murray also urged that the unions make full use of the permission to increase earnings (Turn to Page Seven)

SNOW IS BLAMED FOR TRAFFIC FATALITIES

Connellsville, April 14—(P)—Marion K. Davenport, 38, a mechanic, and Mrs. Hazel Grace Johnson, 41, of Indianhead, were fatally injured in traffic accidents yesterday during a heavy snowfall.

Davenport's car skidded off Limestone Hill. The car in which Mrs. Johnson was riding with her husband collided with a truck on Springfield Pike three miles north of here.

PITTSBURGH DOING WELL
Pittsburgh, April 14—(P)—Volunteer solicitors reported $20,923,000 in subscriptions today for the Second War Loan drive in Allegheny county, representing purchases by 9,659 residents. The county's quota of the nation's thirteen billion dollar goal is $259,000,000.

Naval Fliers Perish When Plane Crashes

Greensburg, April 14—(P)—Two naval fliers perished when their single-engine plane crashed into a wooded ridge of bleak Laurel mountain during a snowstorm yesterday.

The plane cut a swatch through trees before striking the ground half a mile from the Mt. Hope schoolhouse in the southeastern section of Westmoreland county.

W. K. Kern, teacher in the school, said he felt a "great vibration of the ground." The engine was found 300 feet from the wreckage, which was destroyed by fire.

Approximately eight inches of snow was on the ground. By the time state motor police arrived from the Jennerstown barracks, the wreckage had almost been covered by snow.

Under supervision of Coroner H. Albert McMurray, the bodies were removed to a funeral home in Stahlstown.

It was just seven years ago this month at a spot about 15 miles southwest of the scene that a TWA airliner—the "Sunbeam"—crashed, killing 12 of its 14 occupants. Stewardess Nellie Granger tumbled for three miles through snow and heavy underbrush to tell of that tragic mishap.

The navy withheld names of the victims of yesterday's crash pending notification of their nearest of kin.

Area Key Gardeners of the Victory Garden Committee for Warren Borough held a meeting last evening to report progress made in the several sections of the city. The Victory Garden Committee has divided the borough into five different sections.

Area No. 1 includes the center of town between Conewago creek and Chestnut street, and is represented by Robert Truster and Brackett Ayers as key gardeners. Area No. 2 comprises the district from Conewago creek to the east—north limits of the city and as far north as Jackson avenue, represented by Charles A. Miller as (Turn to Page Five)

Date Is Fixed For Traitor To Pay Penalty

Detroit, April 14—(P)—Execution of German-born Max Stephan, convicted traitor, was set for Tuesday, April 27, at the Federal Correctional Institution at Milan, Mich., by U. S. District Judge Arthur J. Tuttle today. Stephan, handcuffed to two United States marshals, vept through the entire proceedings.

Judge Tuttle refused a plea from the traitor's attorney, Nicholas Salowich to set an execution date about the middle of May. The judge told the attorney and the defendant that the only door open to him is to appeal to President Roosevelt for executive clemency.

Stephan was sentenced Aug. 8, 1942, to be hanged at Milan on Nov. 13, 1942, following conviction by a federal court jury July 2 of last year. The execution was delayed while Stephan's attorney appealed to the U. S. supreme court.

Six-Day Week Plan Accepted

New York, April 14—(P)—Northern Appalachian bituminous mine operators have rejected a government proposal that a six-day work week with time and a half pay for the sixth day be guaranteed the nation's 450,000 soft coal miners.

Submitted by the labor department in a move to break the deadlocked bituminous wage conference, the proposal, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins announced in Washington last night, has been accepted by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, as "a basis" of settling the union's dispute with the operators.

She added that the operators thus far have turned down the proposal but said she had "great hopes" that ultimately they will accept it.

The government's suggestion was advanced through Dr. John R. Steelman, head of the U. S. Conciliation Service, who announced yesterday that the northern wage conference "seems completely deadlocked."

MEASURE IS APPROVED BY 28-12 VOTE

Redistricting Legislation Is One of Two Important Matters Passed in Upper House

ANOTHER EARLY START

Harrisburg, April 14—(P)—The senate, working laboriously through a long calendar under a rule requiring full reading of bills, today passed measures re-apportioning the state's 33 congressional districts and lowering the unemployment compensation cost to employers who provide steady work.

The administration re-apportionment bill against which Democrats invoked a seldom used bill-reading rule that brought the senate into session two days in succession at sunrise, was approved and sent to the house by a vote of 28-12.

The unemployment compensation measure, known as "the merit rating plan," went to the house by a 27 to 12 vote.

A roll call at the 7 a. m. session which started 10 minutes late, showed 36 of 50 senators in their seats. Leaves of absence were granted 6 senators for cause and Heyburn, objecting to a blanket leave for others, observed:

"The fact that some senators didn't get out of bed is not a good reason."

EXCESSIVE CHARGES FOR POULTRY ALLEGED

Philadelphia, April 14—(P)—Charges that some of the largest poultry wholesalers in the Philadelphia area made "enormous" sums through excessive charges were aired today before a federal grand jury which last week indicted 17 persons and a corporation for alleged meat ceiling violations.

A spokesman for the U. S. attorney's office said indictments will be sought against approximately 10 dealers with a gross annual business of more than $50,000. Forty witnesses still are to be heard, the spokesman said, adding that overcharges of as much as 30 cents a pound had been reported by previous witnesses.

WAGE DISCUSSION IS RENEWED BY MINERS

New York, April 14—(P)—Representatives of the United Mine Workers and Anthracite Coal mine operators now meeting on contract negotiations continue their discussion of increased living costs at today's session.

The conferees met four hours yesterday in a closed conference. Most of the meeting was devoted to study of UMW figures that indicated the increased cost of living since February, 1941, has been greater than the 15 per cent figure set in the War Labor Board's little steel formula.

CHILD STRANGLED IN JUNKED AUTOMOBILE

Charleroi, April 14—(P)—A three-hour search for four-year-old Paul Foster ended yesterday when he was found strangled by the door of a junked automobile. The child apparently crawled through the door of the sedan, which was lying sideways in a junk yard. He slipped, and the up-raised door fell on his neck.

SHORTAGE OF GUARDS

Philadelphia, April 14—(P)—Eastern Penitentiary, faced with a "critical" shortage of guards, has appealed to President Roosevelt to defer induction of four veteran guards into the army. Warden Herbert Smith said yesterday.

TODAY'S BOND BOX

By FRANK KNOX

Secretary of the Navy
(Written for The Associated Press and the Times-Mirror)
The young men of the United States Navy are in battle from the South Seas to the Mediterranean. Their battle will not cease until the hour of victory. Many of them will not live to see that victory. Yet, without exception, they feel that life itself is not too great a sacrifice for the maintenance of the freedoms which we all hold dear.

We at home are called upon for no such sacrifices. Any burdens which we bear are light indeed compared to those of our fighting men. Yet there is one small way in which we can ease our debt of gratitude.

We can see to it that no man dies because of lack of ships or planes or guns or any of the other weapons of war so essential to victory. We can do this by supporting the second war loan drive now in progress.

Many Teams Entered In Aid Contest

Twelve First Aid teams representing five Warren county troops are already entered in the first aid contest to be held as a part of the program of the First Aid and Emergency Service Meet to be held Saturday evening, April 17, at the Beaty Junior High School gym.

The program will get under way promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The teams have been working for several weeks preparing the best solutions to a series of first aid problems which have been submitted to them. The boys will not know until they appear on the gym floor which of the problems they will be asked to perform. These will be given them by R. L. Endress, chief judge of the meet.

One of the problems is sure to be one in which the boys will work "blindfolded", assuming the necessity of having to perform first aid to a victim in black-out conditions. This will require the preparation of padded splints or the use of a traction splint, proper treatment for a broken forearm, preparation of an arm sling and transportation of the victim. This will be a spectacular feat, and will be of interest to the audience as well as to the other Scouts and officials in attendance.

The patrol leaders of the teams entered in the first aid contest are as follows: Troop No. 1, Harry Lewis, Bill Houston; Troop No. 9, Jack Farrell, Jim Richards and Alan Schuler; Troop No. 13, Ernest Breed; Troop No. 14, Harry King, Jr., and Lawrence Warner; Troop No. 46, Charles Fuller, Herbert Cross, Gordon Drum and Buddy Marner.

Two first aid teams under the leadership of Patrol Leaders Robert Johnson and Thomas Nelson of Ludlow Troop No. 50 will compete under the same rules and regulations at a meet to be held in the high school in Ludlow Friday night, April 16th.

Hi-Y Club To Attend Sunday Night Service

Youth in Warren borough and county will be given an opportunity to begin the observance of Holy Week in a fitting manner through the Palm Sunday evening service which is being held by the Hi-Y Club as a part of its April go-to-church campaign.

This special service is planned for 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church and all young people and youth groups are invited. Principal feature will be an illustrated talk by Clyde Schotzbarger, district secretary of the State YMCA, who will be remembered by many as a former physical director in the local association.

His reputation for unique devotional services and inspiring religious messages augurs well for an interesting and worth while hour on Sunday evening. His illustrations will consist of full color slides of the great religious paintings of all times, a subject especially appropriate at this time of year.

Special music will be provided by the First Methodist choir directed by Carroll A. Fowler.

Planning the service is a committee composed of James Richards, Hi-Y chaplain; Hugh Jamieson, Khlar McDonald, Richard Randall and Ralph Wagner, Jr.

Get on the BOND Wagon!

When the engine bell clangs and the engineer pulls the throttle and a train heaves its way toward an eastern reception center with another group of selected service men, The Struthers-Wells Band sends the boys away with a cheerful tune.

For weeks the bandmen of the company have played patriotic airs as the relatives and friends bade their loved ones farewell, and their task has been no easy one.

But what a lift it gives the fellows who are departing!

Many of the bandmen have seen their sons and brothers depart. 120 shopmen are now in the armed forces, ready to give their all amid the crash of guns and the sweat and toil of war.

Do you not think that when the band plays and the train whistles onward, that in unison with the offering of the selectees you should take an oath to support them to the utmost? It doesn't cost one cent, as you merely lend your money and for it receive interest.

Buy Bonds and help keep the music of home ringing in the ears of the boys at the front by letting the lads know that one and all are sending them every blessed thing they need!

Bell Company Honors Safe Drivers Here

Six Bell Telephone Company workers from Warren and nearby communities, who have driven company motor vehicles a total of 850,000 miles—the equivalent of 34 times around the world without being responsible for a single accident—were honored last night at a special safety dinner in the Woman's Club, 310 Market St.

They were presented with awards by David R. Ingalls, general plant manager, at a meeting of the Hundred Thousand Mile Club, telephone company organization for men who have driven that distance safely.

One of the men, John H. Kerchner, 28 Hemlock avenue, Kane, was inducted into the club on the completion of ten years of safe driving at an average of 10,000 miles a year. He was presented with a certificate and inscribed wallet.

The others were charter members of the club when it was founded in 1938 and were honored on the completion of an additional five years, or 50,000 miles, each of safe driving. They were George N. Brittain, 1007 Conewago avenue; Frank L. Reese, 224 Main avenue; Joseph C. Underwood, 17 Prospect street, all of Warren; Melvin W. McKisson, Elm street, Tionesta; and Guy F. Painter, Orange street, Oil City. Each received a specially inscribed automatic pencil.

The men were praised by Mr. Ingalls for their part in making the 1942 safety record of the company's Western Pennsylvania territory the best in nine years.

He explained that safe operation of motor vehicles has been one of the major phases of the telephone company's comprehensive accident prevention work for the last 30 years.

"We have not yet reached perfection, but we have made a record we are proud of," he said. "Safety is a part of the war effort and the drivers of this district have played a patriotic part in achieving this record."

Julius A. Krause, district plant superintendent, was chairman of the meeting.

For families in Pine Grove Township the state to pay the expenses but the money to go through the board.

The board voted to sponsor the course. The secretary was instructed to write to the Stanton Heating Co. to come as soon as possible for an inspection of the Russell high school furnace.

Application for teachers in Russell high school was read and filed. School closes Thursday April 22. School opens Tuesday April 27.

A large attendance is requested to be present at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association which will be held Tuesday evening April 20 when Miss Arlene Schure will be present to discuss the possibility of establishing a canteen center in Pine Grove Township. The equipment to be furnished by the government. A silver offering will be taken to help defray the expenses of the new service bulletin which will be erected in the near future and will have the names of men and women of the township who have left for the armed service.

SYNOPSIS: Sam Chernen, worker in the steel mills of a desolate Pennsylvania town, has two dissatisfied women in his house—his wife's sister, Katherine, seventeen, talented, and stage-struck—and his young wife, Helen, who had walked out on him to make her own way in the world, and, failing, had come back. Helen was determined to steer Katherine into being rich and famous. A vaudeville team, Runkel and Collins, made a one night stand in the town. Katherine, amusing her friends by doing an imitation of Collins, won the enthusiastic praise of the town. Katherine, giving her football boy-friend the go-by, went with Runkel and Collins to the deserted theatre to dance and sing for them.

CHAPTER II

AN OIL LAMP with a smoky chimney dimly lighted the upstairs bedroom of the Chernens. Helen was pacing back and forth haranguing her husband on the late hours, kept by her sister, Katherine. "A foolish young girl like that, Sam! You can't tell what might happen to her! Those crazy kids they get excited . . . they lose their heads! It's three o'clock!"

"They lose track of time! . . . What's so terrible about it . . . Johnny Gilpin's just a youngster! They don't stop to think!"

"That's just it! They get married, trapped, finished for good! Ssh! She heard a key turn in the lock and storming downstairs found Katherine in the arms—not of Johnny Gilpin—but of a husky young stranger. As she shrieked the girl's name, the couple parted. After the first moment of alarm, Katherine giggled. The young man

ing outside the stage entrance of the Orpheum Theatre the next day at dusk, when Helen, looking disturbingly trim and determined walked up to them. "I'm Helen Chernen," she said looking Runkel in the eye. "We met last night!"

Paul Collins, scenting trouble ahead for his pal, spoke cautiously but firmly. "Now listen, lady, don't start any trouble. Mr. Runkel will not bother your . . ."

"Now that they're married, I'm going along!"

cleared his throat, swallowed, fixed his tie, and stammered: "I guess this is . . . er . . . one of life's embarrassing . . . er . . . moments!"

In the stormy scene that followed, Katherine giggled, Runkel apologized, Helen raged, and long-suffering Sam, rising in wrath, slapped Katherine across the face and ordered Albert Runkel out of the house.

Helen found Katherine sitting on her bed, sad but smiling. "If ever Sam hits me again," she said, "I'll leave! Why is it that when something wonderful . . . you folks try to spoil it?"

"Some fellow picks you up and you think you're having fun!" "Tonight's been the best night I ever had in my whole life. I danced on a real stage . . . and they told me I was wonderful!"

"Who?" Helen asked with sudden interest. "Who told you?" "Runkel and Collins. They're real professionals, vaudeville actors. The one you saw was Runkel . . . Albert Runkel . . . isn't he good-looking?"

"He looks like a farmer!" But Helen was beginning to calculate. "You ought to see him on the stage. And he says I'm the nicest girl he's seen since he left Nebraska . . . says he's seen 'em all and I've got more talent and stuff than any of them!"

"Go on," said Helen, her pale face flushed. "He's a very important man. He's played all over the country. He's a man of the world. Not like Johnny Gilpin."

"All right, go to sleep now, darling," Helen said, patting her arm, but at the door she paused. "Katherine, he kissed you . . . does he really like you?"

"He said he's been missing something for the last ten years and he didn't know what it was . . . Tonight he found out, he said, it was me!"

"When's he leaving town?" "In three days . . . He said he couldn't bear the thought of leaving me. He's a very romantic boy. He wants to see me tomorrow night, too. And he will if Sam doesn't stop me . . ."

"Don't worry, dearie. You'll get past Sam . . . even if I have to chloroform him!" They grinned at each other as Helen left the room.

Runkel and Collins were standing outside the stage entrance of the Orpheum Theatre the next day at dusk, when Helen, looking disturbingly trim and determined walked up to them. "I'm Helen Chernen," she said looking Runkel in the eye. "We met last night!"

Naval Party Coming For Enlistments

Men and women of the borough and county are to have an opportunity to submit their qualifications for commissions in the U. S. Naval Reserve and Women's Reserve on Tuesday, April 20, from two until nine o'clock in the West Penn Oil Company offices, Liberty street. Women may also obtain their information relative to enlistment in either the WAVES or SPARS.

A traveling procurement party of naval officers from the Pittsburgh headquarters will be at the above address for the purpose of interviewing applicants and conducting preliminary physical examinations. The party will include Lt. C. S. Belfour and Lt. E. H. Coleman, the latter a medical officer, and Ensign Wanda McLaughlin, WAVE officer. Those interested should be on hand during the hours specified.

With certain exceptions, men applying for commissions must be at least five feet, six inches in height and be otherwise physically qualified college graduates between the ages of 19 and 39 years. Physical requirements for women vary with rankings and ratings for officers and enlisted women, and generally WAVES and SPARS should be between 20 and 35.

Men are desired for service as general duty deck officers; in engineering, ordnance and administrative classifications; and as chaplains, supply officers, medical and dental officers and warrant officers for construction battalions.

Pay runs as follows: Ensign, with dependents, $3,024 a year, without dependents, $2,592 a year; lieutenants (junior grade), with dependents, $3,404, without dependents, $2,972; lieutenant, with dependents, $3,984, without dependents, $3,552. Pay of a warrant officer is the same as that of an ensign.

Scout Troop Has Meeting At St. Paul's

Scoutmaster Melbourne Carlson and his assistant, Emmett Ecklund, of the newly organized Troop 43 Boy Scouts at Lutheran church, completed last evening the tenderfoot tests for those not having them and these will be included in the charter application which goes to national headquarters today.

Robert G. Swanson, troop committee chairman, and Harold Passinger, committee member, expressed gratification at progress made by the boys. Rev. Bertil Edquist, pastor, paid the troop a visit during the evening and Franklin R. Hoff, of the organization and extension committee of the county council, was a guest.

The troop made plans to attend the spring Boy Scout Night at Betsy School next Saturday and secured tickets for their parents and friends. A lively program of indoor games rounded out the evening's program. Scouts present were: Allen Anderson, Dwight Carlson, Donald R. Gustafson, Leland Hart, Howard Johnson, James Johnson, Carl N. Leave, Gordon Omdark, Carl Peterson, Curtis Valentine and Charles Delford Valentine.

LUDLOW

Ludlow, April 10—The Board of Review for the Ludlow District of Warren County Boy Scout Council met in the Scout Headquarters on Monday evening April 5th. The following Tenderfoot Scouts, members of Troop No. 50, were advanced to Second Class rank: Eugene Draty, Paul Johnson, Kent Swanson, James Christensen, Earl Shaffer, Melvin McCleary Jr., and James Nelson. The committee members officiating were, E. Wilbur Johnson, Evert Johnson, Gustav Olson, Enoch Nelson, and M. I. Jones.

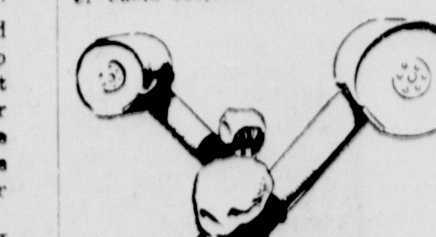

Mrs. Lawrence Dippert entertained two tables of bridge at her home on Tuesday evening. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess, after which the prizes for the evening were presented to Mrs. B. K. Connelly, and Mrs. M. McCleary.

American Legion Group Has Child Welfare Program; Hears Reports and Plans Activities

The month of April has been set aside as child welfare month in the program of the American Legion Auxiliary, which, since its beginning, has had as one of its objectives "a square deal for every child". To that end, a special child welfare program was carried out last evening following the tureen dinner served to local auxiliary members by Mrs. M. E. Wilkins and Mrs. R. F. Hildum.

Mrs. K. W. Davis, sub-chairman of Child welfare, gave a report of the work done by the unit this year and presented Miss Julia Heibel, superintendent of the Hoffman Children's Home, in a complete and colorful description of the home organization and the life of the children at the home. She commended especially the work of the YMCA, the Boy Scouts, Girl Reserves and churches, stating that the children were a very patriotic group and were proud of the flag presented to them two years ago by the auxiliary. Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, president, expressed the thanks of the members to Miss Heibel for this very informative talk.

Blue Stockings Close Season With Gardens For Program Subject

Blue Stocking Club members were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Lutz, 125 Biddle street, with Mrs. Edith Smith assisting hostess. Miss Ethel Morris conducted the business session and, after routine reports had been accepted, Mrs. Smith spoke for the Consumers' Committee of the Defense Council.

Miss Morris spoke of the Thomas Jefferson memorial celebration in Washington, D. C., bringing out Jefferson's intense love of gardens and all growing things. This fitted in nicely with the program on "Gardens," Mrs. Burr Walker's subject for the day's program.

Mrs. Walker told of attending in Philadelphia last week the annual meeting and luncheon of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, with a description of beautiful slides shown and talks on wild flowers adapted for gardens. Victory Gardens were discussed by the club and Mrs. Walker gave many interesting facts on garden flowers suitable for Warren planting; also on the cultivation of roses, which is her own well known hobby. The fact that the entire club took part in this discussion of gardens made this last program meeting of the year most interesting.

Tea was served from a pretty table, with Mrs. Ralph Stone, a guest, presiding.

The annual meeting of the club will be held April 27 at the YWCA activities building with luncheon and election of officers. The committee on arrangements is composed of Mrs. Brackett Ayers, Harriet Wilkins and Mrs. Norbert Peterson.

matured vegetables for winter use.

During the pleasant weather of a few days ago many prospective gardeners went on their plots and cleared the remains of last year's stocks and vines preparatory to plowing. When the weather clears up again it is suggested by the committee that others who propose to make gardens on plots not already cleared lose no time in doing so.

Enthusiasm for early planting often overcomes the inexperienced gardener, but there are very few vegetables in this section of the country that can be put in the ground before the first week of May. Transplanting of plants subject to frost should not be undertaken until the latter half of May or even the first of June.

Social Events

STONE CLASS

Following the War Loan mass meeting in the First Presbyterian church Monday evening, members of the May R. Stone Class met in the parlors to hear Mrs. Paul Arnold read an inspiring article which proved practical to women in war times and a short prayer appropriate to the spring season.

Miss Hazel Thurston, president, conducted a business session and Mrs. Russell Norris followed with secretary's report by distributing envelopes for an Easter offering. Refreshments were served by the committee from a table centered with spring flowers and green candles.

FINAL STUDIO MEET OF PLAYERS CLUB

At 8:30 this evening in the Woman's Club auditorium the Warren Players Club will have its final studio session for this season, presenting the competition winner by Helen Israel, the runner-up written by Lester Muthert and an entry from the 1942 contest by Mac Kinander. Following the first play, an important business session will be conducted by the president, Miss Edna Glasser.

Borough Experiences Taken Bombing Today

A token bombing of Warren took place at noon today when leaflets referring to the 2nd War Loan were dropped on the business and residential sections of town by friendly bombers. The local Civil Air Patrol thus showed their co-operation with the War Finance Committee in calling further attention to the work now going on in Warren County for the 2nd War Loan, and today's "attack" was made with Fred Schuler doing the flying and Warren Stone passing out the "ammunition".

Toiks Given In Youngsville And Sheffield

Efc. Harold W. Landis, U. S. Marine Corps, and Benjamin Ludlow, State Administrator of the War Savings Staff, continued their talks in Warren County yesterday in support of the 2nd War Loan.

During the forenoon they talked at the Youngsville High school and at the Tidoute High school and then drove to Sheffield for lunch with the Rotary Club, making talks at the Sheffield High school and at the O'Connor Machine Company during the early afternoon.

They were conducted to these various places by H. L. Blair, county superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Marie Hamilton, Women's Chairman of the War Savings Staff of Warren County, and an enthusiastic reception was given to the speakers everywhere they went with their inspiring talks.

Personal Paragraphs

Arthur Lindell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lindell, of Russell, left Sunday for Pittsburgh, from where he went to Nashville, Tenn., to enter the Army Air Corps. Relatives and friends honored him with a farewell party Friday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Richard Hanna, 329 Jackson avenue, this city, presenting him a purse of money.

According to the latest word had from New York City, Judge Edward Lindsey is showing rapid improvement following two serious operations.

Ralph H. Wagner, general secretary of the YMCA, is moving his family today from 24 Glenwood street to 109 Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Sidney Blackman, Jr., and daughter, Ann, Fifth street, arrived home this morning after spending several months in Boston, Mass.

C. E. Quackenbush, of Spring Valley, Minn., is here to visit his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Quackenbush, Laurel street.

Mrs. David F. Seybert and son, Harry B., of Washington, D. C., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dilleuth, 6 Willowhatch avenue. Harry Seybert has been accepted for service in the armed forces and will leave next Monday for Camp Lee, Va.

Mrs. Jennie MacDonald, Parker street, left yesterday for observation and treatment at the Buffalo General Hospital.

PLAN MAY PARTY

Plans were made last evening for a May card party to be held in the Holy Redeemer church hall on Wednesday, May 12. Mrs. Henry Acks was appointed chairman of the affair, with Mrs. Jacob Hesch, Mrs. Elizabeth Zobrist and Paul Smith as her assistants. Others will cooperate in making this one of the popular events for which this parish has long been noted.

GRANGE NOTES

DEGREE TEAM

At a meeting held last evening in Youngsville it was decided the Warren County Pomona degree team will meet for practice in the Brokenstraw Grange hall at that place on Friday, April 30.

ALL GRANGERS ARE INVITED TO MEETING

Dallas Brooks, lecturer of Mountain Grange at Tidoute, invites all masters, lecturers and Grange members to attend a meeting scheduled in his Grange hall at 8 p. m. April 23, when the state master and lecturer will be special guests. A large attendance is hoped for and all present should bring "eats", the committee to provide coffee, cream and sugar.

AREA CAMPAIGN OPENS

The first meeting for the opening of the Boy Scout Area Campaign was held last night in the home of Barney Hughes in Tiona. Seven men were present, prospect cards and workers kits were distributed and explained to the men. The solicitation will begin immediately and it is hoped the community will "go over the top" within a few days. The men who were present were: Barney Hughes, community chairman; E. D. Champion, V. R. Brennan, Roy Johnston, John D. Logan, W. H. McClellan, A. C. Bailey and Chester R. Seymour.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10¢ and 25¢.

CHARGE YOUTHS WITH FATAL BEATING MAN

Philadelphia, April 14.—(P)—Nine youths 13 to 19 years old were charged today with being members of North Philadelphia gangs which committed more than 50 acts of violence, including the fatal beating of a 60-year-old man and the beating of an elderly woman.

Police said homicide charges would be filed against Thomas Rambo, 13, and Jacob Manns, 16, while the others would face lesser charges.

Detectives said the youths confessed operating as two allied "gangs" from a restaurant they called "the bucket of blood pit."

All those arrested are negroes.

BRIDE IS MISSING ON JOURNEY TO COAST

Pittsburgh, April 14.—(P)—Police of a dozen states were on the lookout today for Mrs. Bessie M. Keefe, 25, an Ingram bride of three months, who disappeared on a transcontinental trip to Salinas, Calif., to visit her husband, Corporal Chester P. Keefe.

The Corporal telegraphed that his wife's baggage arrived on Monday. She last was heard from when she left Chicago on Thursday, after a stopover to visit with an uncle, John T. Waugh.

IN NEWS AGAIN

Warren county's position in the gasoline rationing situation is given another angle today in a Pittsburgh newspaperman, Ray Sprigle, of the waste of the precious liquid in this immediate area.

Writing in the morning Post-Gazette as an observer, Sprigle tells of a visit made to the Clinger Oil and Gas Company's over-filled storage tanks on the Pagunodus lease in Triumph township and of events which transpired there.

Measure is Approved By 28-12 Vote

(From Page One)

The Democratic minority in the house joined their senate colleagues in invoking the time-consuming rule which the Republicans claim threatens a proposed final adjournment on April 29.

By custom of years standing a bill usually is read only by its title because it must be read three times on different days before a vote is taken.

The reading marathon this week has tied up legislative machinery so that only a handful of major bills have passed—the administration tax program in the house and a $50,000,000 bond issue for war public works in the senate.

Leading the fight against reappointment, Senator Joseph M. Barr (D-Allegheny) claimed the administration bill gives the Republicans a majority of the five districts in his home county where Democrats now hold four seats.

In addition to revamping the Allegheny setup, the measure would eliminate one Philadelphia district to end the need of electing one congressman on a statewide basis.

Districts generally would be re-sorted to their status prior to last year's makeshift reappointment to cut the delegation from 34 to 33 as required by the 1940 census.

Loan Speaker Meets Relatives More Buying Of Comrade in Guadalcanal Confidence Is Displayed

Perhaps the most interesting experience of Mr. Harold W. Landis during his visit to Warren County was one at the Tidouthe High School yesterday morning.

Upon approaching Tidouthe with the members of his party, Mr. Landis recalled the name of the town and this brought to mind the fact that one of the members of his own company of Marines in Guadalcanal was a resident of Tidouthe. Quickly refreshing his memory, he described to his hosts and later to the teachers and pupils in the school his experiences with Fred Benner, a Tidouthe boy and a young Marine who enlisted while employed at Oil City, entering the service in January 1942.

Among his hearers in the school were four younger sisters of the Benner lad who were naturally overjoyed to hear this message direct from a comrade of their brother. Another sister, Miss Mary Benner, is employed at the Warren General Hospital and had an opportunity yesterday to become acquainted with her brother's friend, Mr. Landis.

Fred Benner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Benner, and the family's home has been at Tidouthe for many years although the death of Mr. Benner, Sr., occurred about a year ago. Another brother in the family, Lt. Phillip T. Benner, is in the Army and is now stationed at Camp McCain, Mississippi.

returned to his cell was Harold B. Brest, 31, Sharon, Pennsylvania bank robber serving a life sentence. He suffered an elbow wound which required two stitches.

Johnston said he was positive Boardman and Hamilton were killed.

"Hamilton was shot and we saw him go under," the warden said.

Boardman's head was riddled. Brest was trying to keep Boardman afloat when one of the prison, coastguard and San Francisco police boats in the search came upon them. Brest let the body go, and it sank.

Brest, a former resident of Sharon, Pa., and Harry J. Logan of Pittsburgh were sent to Alcatraz for robbing the First National Bank at Volant, Lawrence county, Pa., in 1937, kidnapping D. L. Santee of Sharon, and driving him in his car to Youngstown, O., where they released him.

Later the pair returned to Volant and robbed the bank again, getting in all about $9,0

Woman Back From Front To Talk Here

It has been said that if a present day Boswell decides to write the life of Margaret Bourke-White, coming here Friday evening as the final number on the YWCA lecture forum course, he would undoubtedly call it "Woman Unafraid", since absolute fearlessness seems the keynote to her character.

Margaret Bourke-White has looked often upon the bright face of danger and, squinting one big blue eye, has reached for another lens. She is extraordinary, her life reading like a list of "firsts" at a county fair.

Now she is just back from the battlefields of North Africa, where she was attached to a bomber squadron, and it seems not at all surprising that she was the first woman to receive permission to fly in the first bomber, lead plane, in a real attack on the enemy.

She is the first to admit she never goes anywhere without a camera, for, as she explains it, "you never know what will happen".

After one has met and listened to Margaret Bourke-White, he is not at all astounded at any of the things she has lived through. When she and her shipmates were tormented en route to Africa, they had to abandon ship, losing all their clothes and belongings. Miss Bourke-White, however, saved a camera, film, her iron rations and an indispensable jar of cold cream. Her only personal comment about the whole experience was a gripe that the submarine struck at night and she couldn't get the picture she wanted, because the light wasn't bright.

Those who wish to hear her Friday night are urged to secure their single admissions at the "Y" office at once if they do not hold season tickets.

"Meatleggers" are stripping valuable dairy herds in northwestern Pennsylvania by paying fancy prices for cattle, the Erie county farm agency, packing firms and district OPA office in that city report.

"Strangers" are calling at barns of dairymen in Mercer, Crawford and Erie counties, offering $17 a hundredweight for cows on the hoof, a price higher than legitimate meat operators can pay, officials declared.

A shortage of farm help is providing further incentive to the dairymen for cutting down their herds.

Milton Schaffner, president of Schaffner Brothers, largest independent packing concern in Erie, said he was "aware of the condition but was unable to offer any comment."

The district OPA office, headed by Charles Leslie, is investigating. Meantime, a meat shortage developed in Erie, causing more than 15 meat markets to close down.

Just SCRAPS

No less than sixty schools are participating in the big drive for metal scrap now under way, a drive for enough metal to build three destroyers. The public of the county was requested this morning by W. T. Corbett, chairman of the County Salvage Committee, to assist these schools by contributing scrap to them. Schools receive the proceeds of the scrap after it is sold. "Get those destroyers!" is the slogan under which several hundred principals and teachers, and thousands of students, are operating.

Another carload of cans—can we get it? We CAN, if every housewife begins now to save and process her cans for the big pickup April 21. Remember, tin cans are the paving stones on the highway to victory. Remember the date—April 21! (Incidentally, the anniversary of the declaration of war on Spain 45 years ago.) Remember the Maine? Well, don't forget your tin cans either! They're the mainstay of our war effort.

Yes, the fat's in the fire? Or is it? Well, if it's in the fire or in the garbage can, or anywhere except in a handy Fat-Bank on your kitchen shelf, it's slacker fat, and no bones about it. Remember, nobody loves a fat man. And nobody loves a housewife who perditionally ignores the urgent call of her country to save every drop of fat. One tablespoonful of fat per day, saved by each home—and that's not much, is it, milder?—will be enough to raise Pennsylvania's monthly quota of 1,428,500 pounds. Though State collections increased every month from 181,502 pounds last August to 600,000 pounds in March—and Warren County's record was approximately parallel—we must double our present collections to reach the quarter. Remember—just ONE TABLESPOONFUL A DAY will do it.

Meryl Ruoss of the Y. M. C. A. has his boys weighing 80,000 tons donated by the Piso Company. These cans weigh 7,000 lbs. They're originally made for tooth powder but never used. This work is being done on the Island in the C. C. Smith Company building.

Mr. E. T. Beck of the City Street Dept. has placed new salvage cans on the salvage boxes throughout the Borough, and is painting salvage containers for Russell and North Warren.

H. G. Rodgers gave the paint to paint the salvage containers for orth Warren and Russell.—More Salvage Soldiers.

Youngsville will have curb pick-up of tin cans by the Borough trucks Wednesday morning, April 21st. These cans will go direct into the car at Warren. Elton D. Barton is chairman of Youngsville, Ittsfield, Garland and Irvine. He will gladly assist anyone with dvage problems.

The Warren County Council of Defense and the Salvage Committee are moving into larger offices in the Jamieson building 311 ark street.

OFFICER IN TOWN

An immigration officer will be in town tomorrow and will be located at the court house.

COURT SESSION

A brief session of court was held this morning to hear arguments and for presentation of petitions.

FOX CLUB MEETING

The regular meeting of the Fox Club will be held at the home of Bill McClure, 1715 West Fifth avenue, and a large attendance is asked.

VIEW POST MEETING

The regular meeting of Dinsmoor-Schwing Post, VFW, will be held in the post rooms at eight o'clock Thursday evening, with lunch to follow. Officers ask for a large turnout.

TRAINING SESSION

Special instruction for intermediate leaders will be included in a training session to be held by the Girl Scout Council from 1:30 to 3:30 Thursday at the YWCA activities building.

NAMES ARE ADDED

Several additions have been made to the list of standing committees announced the first of the month for the Chamber of Commerce. W. E. Yeager has been placed on the organization, membership and finance committee; S. J. Myers, on the group for industrial development. President Don C. Smith has appointed Stewart Beckley chairman of a retail merchandising committee, whose members are chosen by the retail members. In this group are W. H. Cannon, F. E. Kieshauser, Ben Kiehnear, H. B. Pettit, P. M. Prinitz, E. L. Stein, F. A. Wood and W. H. Wright.

MUST MAKE REPORTS

All operators of three or more commercial motor vehicles were reminded today by the Office of Defense Transportation that operation reports for the first calendar quarter are due by May 1, 1943. Blank forms for the quarterly reports were sent to all operators of three or more trucks, taxicabs or buses at the time they were mailed their Certificates of War Necessity. The reports are necessary, the ODT said, to determine the amount of mileage conservation being effected. If an operator fails to file his report within the 30-day period after each calendar quarter, he may find it difficult to obtain gasoline rations for subsequent quarters under ODT regulations, the ODT said. Each operator should mail his report to his ODT district office, the address of which is stamped in the upper right hand corner of the form.

FASTEST CREATURE

tion will be held one day some time on the week of the 19th the day to be announced later.

There will be a registration of in-school youth for emergency work in agriculture at the Russell school for any boy who has passed his fourteenth birthday and any girl past her eighteenth birthday is eligible for this farm work. In all cases parents must give written consent upon receipt of the list of those wanting to do farm work. A representative will call at the school and take the actual registrations and collect the "consents". These registrations will be filed at the office at Warren and will be referred to when jobs are available.
